

History of the Institute

1952-1988

On May 13, 2013, the superior general in council, after consultation with the provincial superior of the Province of New Orleans appoints Brother Bernard Couvillion (NO) as editor of the history of the Institute during the terms of the four superior generals who served from 1952 to 1988. His mandate will extend through the duration of the present general administration.